

Manufacturing and Quality

Precision engineering for more efficiency

At all times we place importance to precision technology, a high-quality production and product innovation, our customers can rely that they always receive the best waste recycling equipment from us.

Each product is developed and manufactured according to the strictest standards and this best technology is used in all our manufacturing locations.

We combine many years of know-how also development and manufacturing competence to cover all individual requirements. The result is that you as a customer receive a quality product that ensures the calming safety of functionality and this "Guaranteed Made in Europe".

