

Workbenches

DESCRIPTION

MIYACHI PECO Workbenches meet the needs of operators who intend to mount a weld head and a weld control to a table and create a practicable and efficient working environment.

The workbenches are a sturdy, compact and mobile solution to mount MIYACHI PECO products adequately for daily operation. The frame is made of light aluminum while the plates are made of hardened coated wood painted in neutral light grey.

The workbenches allow flexible mounting of MIYACHI PECO components and to store tools or samples on the bottom plate which may also serve as footrest.
